

Faculty Development Program
BUILDING AND MANAGING STRONG TEAMS

19th June 2019

The FDP on “BUILDING AND MANAGING STRONG TEAMS” was organized by CMS Business School, Jain (Deemed-to-be University) on 19th June 2019.

The aim of the FDP was to understand the role of teams in work places as well as the process that fosters team-building. The session also aimed at highlighting the challenges of working within teams, especially in terms of managing team morale and team output. The FDP also sought to focus on factors that made teams strong and resilient to uncertainty and change.

Mrs. Gladys Nirula was the resource person for the event and elaborated on the five stages of team building process, as given by Bruce Stockman. She stressed on the significance of nurturing and developing a team spirit within an organization and the valuable outcomes that could flow from such coordination's. She shared her rich industrial experience and insights from her domain expertise and insisted on the importance of working as a team that can lead to extraordinary results in the workplace.
