

Faculty Development Program

On Self Motivation

17 June, 2015

The FDP on Self Motivation was organized by CMS Business School, Jain University which was held on 17 June, 2015. The resource person for the event was Mrs. Parul Daftari

The FDP started with self-introduction of faculty members and this was followed by various other activities of self expression. The exercises gave an insight on self development and also a platform for the the faculty members to know each other well.

The FDP also elaborated on other important topics such as “Motivation and its Theories” based on Herzberg Two Factor Theory of Motivation. The faculty members where were divided into teams and exercises based on factors such as individual goals, organizational goals, and team building were also discussed.

The FDP turned out to be a great success and a enriching learning experience for the faculty members where they learned about concepts of self introspection, importance of healthy professional relationship with colleagues and how motivated employees can uplift the institution to greater heights.
