

Evening Today

Visually impaired students win laptop computers under the Marga Schulze scholarship scheme

UDIS (You and the Disabled) Forum, in partnership with CBM and in association with JAIN (Deemed-to-be University) CMS Business School, Bengaluru organized the Marga Schulze Scholarship Distribution for Girls with Visual Impairment from Karnataka.

Dr. Hans Eugen Schulze (visually impaired), a retired judge of the Federal courts of Germany has been distributing the scholarship in Africa and Asia for girls. In India, this scheme is implemented by two CBM partners, the All India Confederation of the Blind in Delhi for the Northern States and the UDIS Forum in Coimbatore. The Marga Schulze scholarship scheme provides a merit scholarship of Rs.12, 000/- for undergraduates and B.Ed. courses, and Rs.18, 000/- for Post-Graduation course.

31 visually impaired girls from Karnata

taka were awarded a merit scholarship of Rs.12, 000/- each. Further, three of these merit scholarship students were presented with the latest model of laptop computers. These students were selected based on their good performance in the computer-related software application test. The scholarship awardees hail from various parts of Karnataka like Mysore, Tumkur, Bangalore, Blagavi, Dharwad, Nanjangud, and Gadag to name a few.