

Faculty Development Program

Absorbing The Intrinsic Value of FDPs

12th January, 2016

The FDP on “Absorbing The Intrinsic Value of FDPs” was organized by CMS Business School, Jain University which was held on 12th January, 2016.

The key speaker for this event was Dean Dr. Harold Patrick who spoke on absorbing the intrinsic value of FDPs and how to engage in life-long learning. The importance of faculty development workshops and the benefits the faculty members can derived from it were also discussed.

He concisely explained the different ways of indulging in self-learning and to reinforce his points he also showed interesting videos. The session ended with a question-answer phase whereby the faculty also gave valuable suggestions to improve the FDPs in the future.
