1. Introduction:
   In a dynamic educational initiative, students from CF1 and CF2 engaged in a simulated parliamentary session, deliberating on the GST Bill. The participants assumed roles such as Prime Minister, Finance Minister, Parliament Affairs Ministers, Opposition Party Leader, Speaker of Parliament, and Parliament members. The session kicked off with students portraying media reporters from CMS TV, live telecasting the parliamentary proceedings. This immersive experience provided a platform for students to showcase their communication skills, stage courage, and domain knowledge.

2. Venue (Outside/Inside the campus): Lecture Hall- 202 & 203, CMS Business School, Sheshadri Road, Gandhi Nagar, Bengaluru – 560009.

3. Program Objectives:

- Introduce and Pass GST Bill
- Introduction of GST for Petroleum products

4. Relevance to PO, Relevance to PEO and PSOs

PO	Program Objective (PO)
PO1	Apply knowledge of management theories and practices to address and resolve business challenges
PO2	Demonstrate analytical and critical thinking abilities for information-based decision making
PO3	Analyse global, economic, legal and ethical aspects of business
PO4	Apply trans-disciplinary tools and techniques towards effective problem solving
PO5	Assist others and self in accomplishing organizational objectives and contribute effectively to a collaborative team setting.
PO6	Exhibit an entrepreneurial mindset for the establishment of sustainable businesses and societies.
PO7	Exemplify value-based leadership for excellence

5. Activity Overview:
The first group discussed the issue of the Introduction of GST for Petroleum Products. After a detailed discussion, the motion was passed in favor of the introduction of GST for petroleum products. The members of the house presented their arguments and counter-arguments on the benefits and drawbacks of introducing GST for petroleum products. The session was conducted in a peaceful and democratic manner, with all members displaying an excellent parliamentary system.
The second group discussed the Introduction of the GST Bill. After a thorough discussion, the bill was passed with 13 members in favor of it, and the motion was carried. The members who opposed the bill also put forth their views and concerns, but the majority decided in favor of the bill's introduction. The discussion was conducted with great decorum, with all members exhibiting their knowledge and understanding of parliamentary etiquette.

6. Guest/Speakers' Profile: NA
7. Summary and Key Learnings of the session:
The simulation allowed students to understand the intricacies of parliamentary discussions, honing their understanding of the truths and myths surrounding the GST Bill. As participants passionately debated and deliberated on the proposed legislation, they gained insights into the complexities of policymaking and the art of negotiation. The session culminated in the acceptance of the GST Bill with a majority vote, marking the successful conclusion of the mock parliament.

A noteworthy aspect of the simulation was the active involvement of students in various roles, fostering a holistic learning experience. The Press Reporter, representing CMS TV, submitted a comprehensive report, summarizing the key highlights of the session. Overall, the mock parliament served as an enriching educational tool, offering students a practical understanding of parliamentary processes and encouraging the development of essential skills for civic engagement.
